

THAT PROSTRATE POLE.

It has been lying flat since Tuesday last. In a former issue of the INTELLIGENCER some account was given of the tribulations of the "best workers" of the Eighth ward, and their frantic efforts to erect on Manor street, a Garfield pole. They met with one series of mishaps after another, from the time they started out to hunt the pole last Tuesday. They were on that day caught in a heavy rain and nearly drowned before they got out of the woods. Next day, being unable to get a Republican wagon, a kind hearted Democrat loaned them one on which to haul their pole into town; but before reaching the city limits the pole broke in twain and had to be abandoned on the Millerfield pike. Then a committee was sent in search of a splice with which to mend and top out the bob-tail stick. In the meantime Mr. Speidel, the owner of the wagon, being unwilling to have it longer exposed to the weather, insisted on regaining possession of his property, and the broken pole was tumbled off by the roadside. Here it was spliced and another team secured to haul it into town. Yesterday was the appointed time to elevate it, but the faithful were slow in lending a helping hand. The more prominent Rads refused to have anything to do with it, because they had been cheated out of their choice of a county committeeman, and they openly said that if Gardner, Snyder and company thought themselves able to run the Eighth ward, they ought to be able to put up their own pole. But they were not able, and so they resolved to call upon the great bridge builder, Capt. McMellen, to put it up for them. McMellen happened to remember that the return tinkers and ballot-box stuffers of the Eighth ward had, at the late primary election, returned more votes against Tom Davis, his favorite candidate for district attorney, than there were Republican voters in the ward, and so he gave them the cold shoulder, and like a sensible man went fishing for eels at Point or Rocks on the Conestoga. He was persuaded, however, for a pecuniary consideration, to hire Snyder, Gardner and company his derrick and a few of his men at a dollar ahead, and yesterday afternoon a desperate attempt was made to raise the slumbering hickory. Between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon the tackle was got ready and the word was given that she would "go up in fifteen minutes." But it was "no go." First the butt of the pole slipped out of the hole, and went crashing through a board fence, coming within an ace of killing Frederick Kahl, a young man who was assisting at the "raising." Hundreds of Democratic boys were looking on with mingled mirth and pity, and generously offered to put the pole in ten minutes, if a Hancock board was put upon it. This generous offer was declined and the Garfield flag again went to work. By main force they lifted the top of it a few feet from the ground, but becoming exhausted they let it fall with a thud. This kind of work was continued for several hours; the pole would get up a few feet from the ground and then, Garfield-like, it would seek its congenial "pavement."

During the afternoon some Democratic boys of the Ninth ward, who had been out in the woods looking for a hickory, marched past the Garfield stick, having in their possession a splendid pole, which they will elevate to-day at the corner of Mulberry and James streets, just to show that Democratic boys can do what Republican men can not. About 7 o'clock in the evening Mayor MacGonigle, who had been visiting friends in the Eighth ward, passed the prostrate pole and was greeted with loud and long continued applause. This morning, Bernard Snyder, a Republican, residing on Manor street, opposite the place where the Garfield pole has not been put up, called upon Mayor MacGonigle and requested him to prevent its erection as he (Mr. Snyder) is afraid that it will fall upon and crush his house. The mayor told Mr. Snyder that if it was a Democratic pole and there was any danger of its falling down he would see that such danger was averted, but as it is a Republican pole he could not interfere without subjecting himself to a charge of "political persecution." He advised Mr. Snyder to see that the street commissioner, who would see that the streets were not unnecessarily obstructed or neighboring property endangered.

"Jesse Nye, superintendent of Eighth ward pole raisings," says if the Republican best workers do not get their pole raised by 6 p. m. to-day, he will erect it and put a Hancock board on it. A Garfield pole on the Manheim turnpike a short distance north of the city is in such a shaky condition that it cannot stand alone; and so its nurses have put a chain around it and tied it fast to a fence post.

THE AMUSEMENT SEASON. Plenty of Good Shows Coming. The second number of The Footlight, which made its appearance this morning, has a list of entertainments to appear here during the coming season under John D. Mishler. Among those which he has booked are: Alice Oates, in a new piece entitled "Long Branch, or Seaside Summer Scenes"; Minnie Palmer, in "Our Boarding School"; and Oliver Doud Byron, in "Across the Continent." These shows will appear early in the season and Mr. Mishler has engaged the following for later dates: Bartley's Campbell's "Matrimony"; Mr. and Mrs. George Knight in "Otto; Robeson and Crane; Neil Burgess in "Widow Bedott"; Gus Williams; "Pirates of Penzance"; Jarrett & Rice's "Fun on the Bristol"; Mrs. Scott Siddons in dramatic entertainment; Fanny Davenport in a new play by Anna Dickinson; Jake Aberle's minstrels, with forty people; Clinton Hull's "Strategists"; Tony Denier, in his new pantomime of "Ticked," with Grimaldi; a company in "Dr. Clyde," and a number of others.

In addition to the above shows a number of companies, which will not appear under Mishler's management, have been booked, some of them are: Annie Pixley in "M'liss"; Buffalo Bill, Barney McCauley, Pat Rooney, Madame Reutz's minstrels and Leavitt's specialty company, John T. Ford's musical comedy, Joe Jefferson, Mr. C. G. Howard in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and others.

It will be seen that both of these lists include many of the best companies traveling, some of which are entirely new with the season, while a number of others have never been here. The season will no doubt be a successful one, and the number of shows already booked is larger by far than at this time last season.

IN THE WOODS.

The Stoverdale Campmeeting. The fourth day of camp was marked with more spiritual enthusiasm than any of the preceding. At the early five o'clock prayer meeting and throughout the day at the various praise meetings there was a full attendance and a deep interest manifested. At 10 o'clock, Rev. J. Young, of Anville, preached in the German language, using Ezekiel xxiv, 20, as a basis of his remarks. He was followed in a short exhortation by Rev. J. L. Pershing, of Sharpville, Pa., who, also by request, sang a beautiful hymn, composed in memory of a minister who died while preaching.

In the afternoon Rev. J. G. Steiner of Shamokin, preached from St. John xx, 17. Mr. Steiner is a young and promising discourses. He treated his theme: "The Brotherhood of Christ," in a masterly manner, and presented a discourse worthy of commendation.

In the evening Rev. B. G. Huber, of Chambersburg, and editor of the Highways of Holiness, preached from Isaiah lxvii, 10. He claimed that the standard of Christianity should be placed too high and then again too low, and lastly he presented the true Christian standard. The effort was a powerful one, and accompanied by the Holy Spirit. Rev. Huber is a forcible speaker and produced a grand effort on this occasion. All the different meetings of the day were largely attended, especially the children's meeting.

To-day Revs. Huber and Pershing made addresses to the children. The singing is under the special direction of Rev. Isaac Baltzell of Harrisburg. The following ministers have arrived on the ground: Revs. B. G. Huber, Killian, Moser, E. H. Sneath, Shellenberger and Stehman.

The services for Saturday and Sunday promise to be of special interest. To-day the children of the Industrial school of Harrisburg are present. Special trains will run on Sunday over the Philadelphia & Reading railroad to Hummelstown.

The social interest is large, and all endeavor to make it pleasant for another. It has been stated from good authority that the Hummelstown council have engaged two policemen from Harrisburg to keep the saloons shut over Sunday.

DEATH OF MAJOR JAMES PATTON. The Business Preceptor of Col. Thomas A. Scott died at Carlisle, Pa. The Philadelphia Record of to-day notes that Major James Patton, residing at 417 South Broad street, in that city, died yesterday morning at Carlisle, Pa., where he had been visiting relatives for a few days past. He was about 76 years old. The deceased was a brother-in-law of Colonel Thomas A. Scott, with whom he left the city during the heated term a few weeks since. For several years past Major Patton had been an invalid, suffering from rheumatism, which disabled him to such an extent as to render him as helpless as an infant. In his younger days he was widely known in this state, being prominent in business and political circles. It was while occupying the state office of collector of toll on the canal at Columbia many years since, where he also was engaged in mercantile business, that Colonel Scott, then a diminutive lad, was employed by him in his store, and the subsequently successful career of Col. Scott has always been a matter of honorable pride on the part of Major Patton, as the keen foresight and prudent business methods, which earned for himself a handsome competence for his declining years, were only enlarged upon in the brilliant career and great reputation of the famous railroad magnate. Major Patton was also once the editor and proprietor of the Columbia Spy, and in those days wielded great influence in the state. His funeral will take place on Monday, at London, Franklin county, where his wife was buried a few years ago. Major Patton was well known in this county, especially in Columbia in the place of his former residence, and in Lancaster city where he resided some years ago, boarding at the Grape hotel. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and a delightful story teller.

NUMBER LEISURE. People Who Try to Keep Cool. Miss Carrie E. Slaymaker, of East Orange street left this morning for a few days sojourn at Willow Glen. John C. Mottor, esq., district attorney of Frederick county, Maryland, was over night at the City hotel last night. He left this morning for Cape May. John M. Amweg, jr., the tenor vocalist, left Lancaster this afternoon at 1 o'clock for New York, he having secured a position in the standard opera troupe of that city. Prof. Carl Matz and A. H. Hall of this city returned last evening from a ten days tour "away down east," their trip terminating at Mount Desert Island, off the coast of Maine, one of the most delightful resorts of the country. Their tour took in New York, Boston, Portland and other points of interest.

The employees of A. B. Landis's coach works, Mount Joy, are to-day picnicking in Myers's woods, a short distance from that borough. The annual picnic of the Home for friendless children, comes off next Wednesday at Tully's Hall, and contributors should send in their supplies to the Home before Wednesday morning. County Treasurer Groff and ex-prison inspector Horting had a little picnic near Willow Glen yesterday. They fished for bass and the treasurer hooked one so large that it broke his bran new fishing pole into three or four pieces, tore the line and escaped.

Capt. McMellen, Bowery Eriaman, Billy Youart, Clay Myers, Jake Haag and ten or a dozen other big fellows, returned from their two days' stag party at Point of Rocks. Bowery led the choir; Billy was chief cook and Jake was the "lone fisherman." The catch was heavy, the cooking excellent and the music mellifluous.

Court will meet on next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, when opinions will be delivered by the judges. On the following Monday the regular August court will begin. The trial list for that week is long but the cases are mostly petty ones.

Mayor's Court. This morning the mayor sent one drunk to jail for 5 days and discharged another. Two boys who had asked for lodging were sent on their way rejoicing.

UNDER THE HAMMER.

Properties Sold at Sheriff's Sale. By High Sheriff Jacob S. Strine at the Lancaster court house this afternoon the following condemned properties were sold: Samuel Donovan's lot on the corner of Main and High street, Mt. Joy, with log weather boarded house and other improvements, to D. M. Martin for $2,000. F. P. Pennock's lot, No. 523 West Lemon street, Lancaster, with two-story brick house and improvements, to People's building and loan association for $810. Chas. S. Pennock's interest in the Peoples' building and loan association, for $5. W. H. Pennock's lot on West Lemon street, adjoining above, with two-story brick house, to Isaac Diller, for $100. The Green Tree hotel property and farm in Strasburg township, containing 78 acres and 31 perches, property of L. L. Bush, with notice to A. D. Gyger tenant tenants, to L. L. Bush, of Bird-in-Hand, for $10,940. The property of Henry F. Benedict, administrator of Elizabeth Benedict, with notice to heirs, a one story brick house, lot and improvements, No. 116 South Duke street, to Jacob Gable, for $1,405. Susan and Isaac Mower's farm of 217 acres with improvements, in Conestoga township, to Eli Eshleman for $4,000. Mary Eckman's Cross-Keys hotel property at Drummer Centre, four acres and 46 perches of ground, with improvements, (the hotel being lately burned), to J. Hay Brown, for $101. Arthur Thomas's lot of one acre with dwelling house, blacksmith and coach shop, and other improvements, near the Green Tree tavern, in Bart township, to Geo. M. Franklin, for $1,250.

LITTLE LOCALS. Here and There and Everywhere. Three of Michael Phalan's hogs at Gordonville died yesterday of supposed poisoning. Twin colored children born in the lower end since the Chicago convention and named Garfield and Arthur, have both died. Ominous. As John Trissler, butcher, was driving to-day at the corner of Prince and Lemon streets his horse stumbled, threw him out of the wagon, cut his head on the wheel and badly bruised his body. A horse, hitched to a country wagon, tied at Orange and Duke streets, scattered some bricks falling from the work on St. James church, started to walk around the tree, broke a shaft and otherwise damaged the wagon. Philip Landis, who for years lived on the City Mill farm, has died in Delaware whether he removed from that state. In the trial of the Lancaster rifle team at their practice yesterday, the best score was made by Frank Diefenderfer. It was 8. The project of dividing the Eighth ward is being revived. The proposed line of division begins at the corner of West King and Strawberry street, runs down Strawberry street to Lafayette street and out Lafayette street to the city limits. The poor directors to-day approved some bills and agreed that John Bachman, who was not the lowest bidder, should put up the new poor house barn, after giving $8,000 security to fulfill his contract.

Parrots. Mr. Johnson, the Lancaster parrot man, is again at his old stand, No. 15 East Orange street, with a few hundred young parrots, at wholesale and retail. Your choice for $1.50. A few days only. Second Grand Picnic. The Lancaster Club will give their second picnic at Tully's Hall this season on Tuesday, August 17. Those who attended the first one, on June 7, will recollect it as an enjoyable affair, and an equally pleasant time is hoped for this second occasion. A Whitt Customer went to a drug store and asked for SOZODONT. The storekeeper said "We're out of that, but here is something just as good." The practical customer said, "No you don't," and walked out to a neighboring store and got a bottle of SOZODONT. and-1w2ed&w Beautifies the complexion by stimulating the small blood vessels.—Cuticura Medicinal Soap.

POLITICAL. The Democratic club of the First ward will hold a meeting at Henry Nehmer's saloon, on Orange street, on Tuesday evening next. Important business will be transacted and a full attendance is desired. SPECIAL NOTICES. It is impossible for a woman after a faithful course of treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to continue to suffer with a weakness of the uterus. Enclose a stamp to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 6.—For the Middle Atlantic states, clear or partly cloudy weather, northeasterly winds, stationary, or higher temperature, stationary barometer. FINISHED. TANNER GETS THROUGH. He Completes his Forty Days Fast. New York, August 7.—Dr. Tanner completed his forty days fast at noon to-day. At 7 o'clock this morning Dr. Tanner had a fit of vomiting; he got up and dressed but at 7:30 a. m. was very much exhausted, and lay in his cot for three hours. A visit from his brother-in-law seemed to make him nervous and he complained of "gonesness" in his stomach. Afterwards he walked around the room; then lay down and was covered with a blanket. He arose at 10:30 a. m., walked into the front room and at eleven o'clock was standing at the window looking down on the crowd. Shortly before twelve a large table of watermelons, fruits, &c., was spread in the hall. How He Ended His Fast. New York, Aug. 7.—Just before noon Tanner's weight was 121½, a loss of 36 pounds in forty days; temperature ninety-nine; pulse ninety-two and respiration seventeen. At precisely 12 o'clock, the signal being a whistle from a neighboring factory, the crowd of a thousand people inside the hall and an immense crowd outside cheered Dr. Tanner enthusiastically and he waved a handkerchief in response. At that moment he had a peach in his hand, but some one snatched it away from him. He immediately drank a glass of milk and called for the Georgia watermelon. He dug his hands into the latter and ate heartily of it. When remonstrated with he said: "No, my lord, I am running this now." Placing a glass of milk to his mouth he said, "Gentlemen, you do not believe that's good." He left the hall at 12:15 and was driven to the residence of Dr. Gunn where he will undergo careful medical treatment. On leaving the hall the doctor walked unassisted down stairs with a slice of melon in his hand. He received an ovation from the crowd, joked and talked with those about the vehicle and expressed much gratification at his hearty reception. Finally the attendants had to hold him in his seat, fearing a reaction from over-eat.

Arriving at Dr. Gunn's house he lay down in the front parlor and endeavored to sleep. So far the milk and watermelon have not disagreed with him. Dr. Gunn himself is ill through over-exertion. PHILADELPHIA & READING. What the Masters Have To Say. PHILADELPHIA, August 7.—The report of the masters in the suit of Taylor vs. the Philadelphia and Reading railroad and coal and iron companies upon the proposition of the receivers of those companies to issue certificates in payment for wages and supplies furnished previous to the failure was filed in the United States Circuit court this morning. The report says the counsel for the receivers having stated that application has been made by several parties holding claims against the companies who request payment of the same, in compliance with the decree of the court made on May 24th, have asked the master to examine and consider the entire subject of indebtedness of both companies for materials and supplies, and the issuing of certificates thereof by receivers. The masters express the opinion that by the terms of the decree the receivers are authorized to make payment of all sums due or maturing for wages or supplies, but as the mortgage creditors who might appear to be prejudiced by allowing preference to those claims are not actually before the court their rights are not affected. The decisions in various railroad cases are reviewed to sustain the position taken by masters who declare: "We see no objection to giving to this class of creditors the specified certificates asked for." The printed forms of certificates are embodied in the report, and the masters say in conclusion: "In addition to the facts which we have already stated we report from the evidence before us that the amount due and maturing for materials and supplies by the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company is about $1,265,000 to May 24, 1880, and the amount due for material and supplies by the Philadelphia and Reading coal and iron company, to the same date is about $550,500." A printed form of certificates is appended to the report of the masters, dated August 6th.

GARFIELD'S PILGRIMAGE. Liberty Next Best Thing to Labor. GREENWOOD, Aug. 7.—A special train bearing General Garfield and party left Jersey City at 7:35 a. m. to-day, and stopped at Paterson. A crowd of five thousand people, mostly of the laboring class, greeted the train and cheered heartily. Garfield made a brief address saying that "the best thing for our country next to its liberty was its labor." The band played "Hail Columbia," and the train moved on. At Middletown another stop was made, and Garfield addressed a large assemblage. Man and His Wife Killed. AITONIA, Aug. 7.—Squire David Robinson and his wife, old people, were out driving last evening. About three miles beyond Franktown, the horse frightened and both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were thrown into the road. Some of the persons in the house saw the accident and came out to their assistance. Mr. Robinson was picked up dead and his wife was terribly injured and will die. A Sad Calamity. Near Middletown, Willie Pollock, aged 6, found some beer, which some men working on a new building near there had, and not knowing what it was drank it, became intoxicated, climbed on a wagon passing along and fell out over the side. The wheels ran over his stomach and he will die.
